RESPONDING TO EMERGENCY CODES

Incident/Event Information System Downtime or Issue Is Alert Incident/Event Code Fire Code Red Facility System Down Facility Alert Hazardous Spill or Exposure Facility Alert Code/Alert Incident/Event Active Shooter, Weapon Situation, or Hostage Situation Violent Situation, No Weapon Bomb Threat Missing Adult Security Alert Missing Infant/Child Amber Alert Partial Facility Lockdown Security Alert Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert Security Alert Security Alert Security Alert	code/Alert Response Instructions Follow downtime procedures. See System Failure tab in the red Emergency Management Guidebook. Facility Alerts Code/Alert Response Instructions Remember: RACE — Rescue, Alarm, Contain, Extinguish/Evacuate. Follow downtime procedure. See System Failure tab in the red Emergency Management Guidebook. Hospital personnel who have been trained in hazardous materials response report to the identified area. All others stay clear. Code/Alert Response Instructions Hospital personnel in the area specified by the Security Alert Remember: RUN, HIDE (with a plan), FIGHT Quickly assess the situation, develop a plan, and take action. Stay alert and don't panic. Evacuate if possible. Seek cover/protection and warn others of the situation. If possible, call 911. All hospital personnel: Upon hearing a Security Alert involving weapons, stay clear of announced location and instruct others to do the same. Close all patient and unit exit doors. Stand by for further instructions. Gray Team and staff able to assist responds to the area. All others stay clear. Remain calm. Do not panic. Keep the caller on the line for as long as possible. DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does. If instructed, organize volunteers to search for suspicious looking packages, backpacks, or boxes. Include public areas and bathrooms in search process. Report findings to Incident Command. Be prepared to evacuate if/when directed to do so. Hospital personnel should search their immediate area and be on the lookout for the identified missing person. Report findings to Security. All staff should be on the lookout for the identified infant or child.
Information System Downtime or Issue Incident/Event Fire Code Red Facility System Down Facility Alert Hazardous Spill or Exposure Facility Alert Code/Alert Code/Alert Active Shooter, Weapon Situation, or Hostage Situation Violent Situation, No Weapon Bomb Threat Missing Adult Security Alert Missing Infant/Child Amber Alert Partial Facility Lockdown Security Alert Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert No	 Follow downtime procedures. See System Failure tab in the red Emergency Management Guidebook. Facility Alerts Code/Alert Response Instructions Remember: RACE – Rescue, Alarm, Contain, Extinguish/Evacuate. Follow downtime procedure. See System Failure tab in the red Emergency Management Guidebook. Hospital personnel who have been trained in hazardous materials response report to the identified area. All others stay clear. Code/Alert Response Instructions Hospital personnel in the area specified by the Security Alert Remember: RUN, HIDE (with a plan), FIGHT Quickly assess the situation, develop a plan, and take action. Stay alert and don't panic. Evacuate if possible. Seek cover/protection and warn others of the situation. If possible, call 911. All hospital personnel: Upon hearing a Security Alert involving weapons, stay clear of announced location and instruct others to do the same. Close all patient and unit exit doors. Stand by for further instructions. Gray Team and staff able to assist responds to the area. All others stay clear. Remain calm. Do not panic. Keep the caller on the line for as long as possible. DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does. If instructed, organize volunteers to search for suspicious looking packages, backpacks, or boxes. Include public areas and bathrooms in search process. Report findings to Incident Command. Be prepared to evacuate if/when directed to do so. Hospital personnel should search their immediate area and be on the lookout for the identified missing person. Report findings to Security. All staff should be on the lookout for the identified infant or child.
Incident/Event Code Fire Code Red Facility System Down Facility Alert Hazardous Spill or Exposure Facility Alert Solution Spill or Exposure Facility Alert Solution Spill or Exposure Facility Alert Solution Student/Event Code/Alert Active Shooter, Weapon Situation, or Hostage Situation Violent Situation Security Alert Solution Security Alert Missing Adult Security Alert Missing Infant/Child Amber Alert Partial Facility Lockdown Security Alert Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert Missing Lockdown Security Alert Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert	Code/Alert Response Instructions Remember: RACE — Rescue, Alarm, Contain, Extinguish/Evacuate. Follow downtime procedure. See System Failure tab in the red Emergency Management Guidebook. Hospital personnel who have been trained in hazardous materials response report to the identified area. All others stay clear. Code/Alert Response Instructions Hospital personnel in the area specified by the Security Alert Remember: RUN, HIDE (with a plan), FIGHT Quickly assess the situation, develop a plan, and take action. Stay alert and don't panic. Evacuate if possible. Seek cover/protection and warn others of the situation. If possible, call 911. All hospital personnel: Upon hearing a Security Alert involving weapons, stay clear of announced location and instruct others to do the same. Close all patient and unit exit doors. Stand by for further instructions. Gray Team and staff able to assist responds to the area. All others stay clear. Remain calm. Do not panic. Keep the caller on the line for as long as possible. DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does. If instructed, organize volunteers to search for suspicious looking packages, backpacks, or boxes. Include public areas and bathrooms in search process. Report findings to Incident Command. Be prepared to evacuate if/when directed to do so. Hospital personnel should search their immediate area and be on the lookout for the identified missing person. Report findings to Security.
Incident/Event Code Fire Code Red Facility System Down Facility Alert Hazardous Spill or Exposure Facility Alert Solution Spill or Exposure Facility Alert Solution Spill or Exposure Facility Alert Solution Student/Event Code/Alert Active Shooter, Weapon Situation, or Hostage Situation Violent Situation Security Alert Solution Security Alert Missing Adult Security Alert Missing Infant/Child Amber Alert Partial Facility Lockdown Security Alert Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert Missing Lockdown Security Alert Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert	Code/Alert Response Instructions Remember: RACE — Rescue, Alarm, Contain, Extinguish/Evacuate. Follow downtime procedure. See System Failure tab in the red Emergency Management Guidebook. Hospital personnel who have been trained in hazardous materials response report to the identified area. All others stay clear. Code/Alert Response Instructions Hospital personnel in the area specified by the Security Alert Remember: RUN, HIDE (with a plan), FIGHT Quickly assess the situation, develop a plan, and take action. Stay alert and don't panic. Evacuate if possible. Seek cover/protection and warn others of the situation. If possible, call 911. All hospital personnel: Upon hearing a Security Alert involving weapons, stay clear of announced location and instruct others to do the same. Close all patient and unit exit doors. Stand by for further instructions. Gray Team and staff able to assist responds to the area. All others stay clear. Remain calm. Do not panic. Keep the caller on the line for as long as possible. DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does. If instructed, organize volunteers to search for suspicious looking packages, backpacks, or boxes. Include public areas and bathrooms in search process. Report findings to Incident Command. Be prepared to evacuate if/when directed to do so. Hospital personnel should search their immediate area and be on the lookout for the identified missing person. Report findings to Security.
Fire Code Red Facility System Down Facility Alert Hazardous Spill or Exposure Facility Alert SIncident/Event Code/Alert Active Shooter, Weapon Situation, or Hostage Situation Violent Situation, No Weapon Security Alert Bomb Threat Security Alert Missing Adult Security Alert Missing Infant/Child Amber Alert Partial Facility Lockdown Security Alert Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert Metalogue Facility Lockdown Security Alert	 Remember: RACE – Rescue, Alarm, Contain, Extinguish/Evacuate. Follow downtime procedure. See System Failure tab in the red Emergency Management Guidebook. Hospital personnel who have been trained in hazardous materials response report to the identified area. All others stay clear. Gecurity Alerts Code/Alert Response Instructions Hospital personnel in the area specified by the Security Alert Remember: RUN, HIDE (with a plan), FIGHT Quickly assess the situation, develop a plan, and take action. Stay alert and don't panic. Evacuate if possible. Seek cover/protection and warn others of the situation. If possible, call 911. All hospital personnel: Upon hearing a Security Alert involving weapons, stay clear of announced location and instruct others to do the same. Close all patient and unit exit doors. Stand by for further instructions. Gray Team and staff able to assist responds to the area. All others stay clear. Remain calm. Do not panic. Keep the caller on the line for as long as possible. DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does. If instructed, organize volunteers to search for suspicious looking packages, backpacks, or boxes. Include public areas and bathrooms in search process. Report findings to Incident Command. Be prepared to evacuate if/when directed to do so. Hospital personnel should search their immediate area and be on the lookout for the identified missing person. Report findings to Security. All staff should be on the lookout for the identified infant or child.
Hazardous Spill or Exposure Facility Alert S Incident/Event Active Shooter, Weapon Situation, or Hostage Situation Violent Situation, No Weapon Bomb Threat Missing Adult Missing Infant/Child Amber Alert Partial Facility Lockdown Facility Alert Security Alert Missing Infant/Child Amber Alert Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert N	 See System Failure tab in the red Emergency Management Guidebook. Hospital personnel who have been trained in hazardous materials response report to the identified area. All others stay clear. Gode/Alert Response Instructions Hospital personnel in the area specified by the Security Alert Remember: RUN, HIDE (with a plan), FIGHT Quickly assess the situation, develop a plan, and take action. Stay alert and don't panic. Evacuate if possible. Seek cover/protection and warn others of the situation. If possible, call 911. All hospital personnel: Upon hearing a Security Alert involving weapons, stay clear of announced location and instruct others to do the same. Close all patient and unit exit doors. Stand by for further instructions. Gray Team and staff able to assist responds to the area. All others stay clear. Remain calm. Do not panic. Keep the caller on the line for as long as possible. DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does. If instructed, organize volunteers to search for suspicious looking packages, backpacks, or boxes. Include public areas and bathrooms in search process. Report findings to Incident Command. Be prepared to evacuate if/when directed to do so. Hospital personnel should search their immediate area and be on the lookout for the identified missing person. Report findings to Security. All staff should be on the lookout for the identified infant or child.
Incident/Event Active Shooter, Weapon Situation, or Hostage Situation Violent Situation, No Weapon Bomb Threat Missing Adult Missing Infant/Child Partial Facility Lockdown Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert Security Alert Mysecurity Alert Security Alert Security Alert Security Alert Security Alert Security Alert Security Alert	to the identified area. All others stay clear. Code/Alert Response Instructions Hospital personnel in the area specified by the Security Alert Remember: RUN, HIDE (with a plan), FIGHT Quickly assess the situation, develop a plan, and take action. Stay alert and don't panic. Evacuate if possible. Seek cover/protection and warn others of the situation. If possible, call 911. All hospital personnel: Upon hearing a Security Alert involving weapons, stay clear of announced location and instruct others to do the same. Close all patient and unit exit doors. Stand by for further instructions. Gray Team and staff able to assist responds to the area. All others stay clear. Remain calm. Do not panic. Keep the caller on the line for as long as possible. DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does. Include public areas and bathrooms in search process. Include public areas and bathrooms in search process. Report findings to Incident Command. Be prepared to evacuate if/when directed to do so. Hospital personnel should search their immediate area and be on the lookout for the identified missing person. Report findings to Security.
Incident/Event Active Shooter, Weapon Situation, or Hostage Situation Violent Situation, No Weapon Bomb Threat Missing Adult Missing Infant/Child Amber Alert Partial Facility Lockdown Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert	Code/Alert Response Instructions Hospital personnel in the area specified by the Security Alert Remember: RUN, HIDE (with a plan), FIGHT Quickly assess the situation, develop a plan, and take action. Stay alert and don't panic. Evacuate if possible. Seek cover/protection and warn others of the situation. If possible, call 911. All hospital personnel: Upon hearing a Security Alert involving weapons, stay clear of announced location and instruct others to do the same. Close all patient and unit exit doors. Stand by for further instructions. Gray Team and staff able to assist responds to the area. All others stay clear. Remain calm. Do not panic. Keep the caller on the line for as long as possible. DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does. If instructed, organize volunteers to search for suspicious looking packages, backpacks, or boxes. Include public areas and bathrooms in search process. Report findings to Incident Command. Be prepared to evacuate if/when directed to do so. Hospital personnel should search their immediate area and be on the lookout for the identified missing person. Report findings to Security.
Active Shooter, Weapon Situation, or Hostage Situation Security Alert Violent Situation, No Weapon Security Alert Bomb Threat Missing Adult Security Alert Missing Infant/Child Amber Alert Partial Facility Lockdown Security Alert Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert	Hospital personnel in the area specified by the Security Alert Remember: RUN, HIDE (with a plan), FIGHT Quickly assess the situation, develop a plan, and take action. Stay alert and don't panic. Evacuate if possible. Seek cover/protection and warn others of the situation. If possible, call 911. All hospital personnel: Upon hearing a Security Alert involving weapons, stay clear of announced location and instruct others to do the same. Close all patient and unit exit doors. Stand by for further instructions. Gray Team and staff able to assist responds to the area. All others stay clear. Remain calm. Do not panic. Keep the caller on the line for as long as possible. DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does. If instructed, organize volunteers to search for suspicious looking packages, backpacks, or boxes. Include public areas and bathrooms in search process. Report findings to Incident Command. Be prepared to evacuate if/when directed to do so. Hospital personnel should search their immediate area and be on the lookout for the identified missing person. Report findings to Security.
Hostage Situation Security Alert Violent Situation, No Weapon Bomb Threat Missing Adult Missing Infant/Child Amber Alert Partial Facility Lockdown Security Alert Security Alert Partial Facility Lockdown Security Alert Security Alert	RUN, HIDE (with a plan), FIGHT Quickly assess the situation, develop a plan, and take action. Stay alert and don't panic. Evacuate if possible. Seek cover/protection and warn others of the situation. If possible, call 911. All hospital personnel: Upon hearing a Security Alert involving weapons, stay clear of announced location and instruct others to do the same. Close all patient and unit exit doors. Stand by for further instructions. Gray Team and staff able to assist responds to the area. All others stay clear. Remain calm. Do not panic. Keep the caller on the line for as long as possible. DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does. If instructed, organize volunteers to search for suspicious looking packages, backpacks, or boxes. Include public areas and bathrooms in search process. Report findings to Incident Command. Be prepared to evacuate if/when directed to do so. Hospital personnel should search their immediate area and be on the lookout for the identified missing person. Report findings to Security.
Bomb Threat Missing Adult Security Alert Missing Infant/Child Amber Alert Partial Facility Lockdown Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert N	 Gray Team and staff able to assist responds to the area. All others stay clear. Remain calm. Do not panic. Keep the caller on the line for as long as possible. DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does. If instructed, organize volunteers to search for suspicious looking packages, backpacks, or boxes. Include public areas and bathrooms in search process. Report findings to Incident Command. Be prepared to evacuate if/when directed to do so. Hospital personnel should search their immediate area and be on the lookout for the identified missing person. Report findings to Security. All staff should be on the lookout for the identified infant or child.
Missing Adult Security Alert Missing Infant/Child Amber Alert Partial Facility Lockdown Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert N	 DO NOT HANG UP, even if the caller does. If instructed, organize volunteers to search for suspicious looking packages, backpacks, or boxes. Include public areas and bathrooms in search process. Report findings to Incident Command. Be prepared to evacuate if/when directed to do so. Hospital personnel should search their immediate area and be on the lookout for the identified missing person. Report findings to Security. All staff should be on the lookout for the identified infant or child.
Missing Infant/Child Amber Alert Partial Facility Lockdown Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert Full Facility Lockdown N	 Hospital personnel should search their immediate area and be on the lookout for the identified missing person. Report findings to Security. All staff should be on the lookout for the identified infant or child.
Partial Facility Lockdown Security Alert Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert N
Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert N	All exits should be covered.Stop and search all vehicles as well as people with bags, belongings, and carts.
Full Facility Lockdown Security Alert N	• If you are in the lockdown area, take direction from your supervisor. All others stay clear.
	Respond as directed to instructions provided. Stay away from windows and doors.
	ledical Alerts
	Code/Alert Response Instructions
Pending Emergency/Disaster Situation Code Triage Stands	-
Emergency Department Needs Additional Assistance Code Triage ED	Identified departments provide additional support and resources to the Emergency Department.
Emergency/Disaster Situation Full Activation Includes community or internal disasters Code Triage	Follow instructions provided by Incident Command. Review Code Triage Policy.
Medical Emergency Adult or Pediatric Code Blue	Code Team responds to the immediate area with age-appropriate equipment. All others stay clear of the area.
	Other
Incident/Event Code/Alert	Code/Alert Response Instructions
Severe Weather Weather Alert	Take necessary precautions that are appropriate to the situation.
Munson Medi	cal Center Specific Codes
Incident/Event Code/Alert	Code/Alert Response Instructions
Massive Transfusion Massive Transfusion Protoco	Hospital personnel who have been trained in Massive Transfusion protocol should report to the identified area.
Medical Response Team (MRT) Medical Response Team	Hospital personnel who have been trained to respond to an MRT should report to the Massive Transfusion Massive Transfusion Protoco Medical Response Team (MRT) Medical	Hospital personnel who have been trained in Massive Transfusion protocol should report to the identified area.

