

Shelley Spencer

Chief Human Resources Officer
Munson Healthcare

Shelley Spencer is Chief Human Resources Officer for Munson Healthcare. Shelley joined Munson in October 2022 and is responsible for talent management, including leading efforts to ensure that Munson's Values (Excellence, Creativity, Exceptional Experiences, Positivity and Teamness) are embraced and embedded into all aspects of the Munson culture. Additionally, she serves as the people ambassador to ensure that diversity, inclusion, and equity are respected core guiding principles of the organization, and that each team member is provided opportunities for development and growth.

Shelley is a C-Suite veteran with a passion for helping people thrive in their careers. In her 20+ years of management experience in consumer products, healthcare, pharmaceuticals, and professional services, she has launched successful brands around the globe and spearheaded numerous innovative marketing initiatives to drive business results. Shelley served The Christ Hospital Health Network, a health care network employing more than 6500 physicians and employees, first as the Chief Marketing Officer, followed by the Chief People and Marketing Officer. She has also held roles as General Manager of the west coast office for Cline Davis Mann, a leading advertising and marketing services agency in the healthcare sector, and President and Chief Operating Officer for various divisions within the Publicis Groupe, a network of healthcare advertising and communications companies.

Shelley earned her Bachelor of Science in Marketing from Boston College and her Master of Business Administration from Pace University Graduate School of Business in New York. During her spare time, she enjoys travel and theatre.
