

Cancer Research in West Michigan

A powerful new team working for you

Cancer Research Consortium of West Michigan

Committed to Community Cancer Research & Education

This Means

- Access to new and unique research
- Cancer clinical trials close to home
- Cutting-edge cancer treatments from clinical trial research

New Grant

- We are now a National Cancer Institute Clinical Oncology Research Program (NCORP)
- Two proven Community Clinical Oncology Programs joining together:
Grand Rapids Clinical Oncology Program (GRCOP) & Kalamazoo Community Clinical Oncology Program (KCCOP) are now:
Cancer Research Consortium of West Michigan (CRCWM)
- Offering the highest level of clinical trials to patients in West Michigan
- We are 1 of only 46 NCORPs in the nation

We are a group of West Michigan hospitals, health care systems, physicians and researchers working together to provide cancer education and access to new and unique cancer clinical trials to the men, women and children in our community.
