

Order Communication Type

1	Cosign Required: orders are available for order types with a Munson Healthcare approved standing orders only . <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. All active Health Maintenance Recommendations may be ordered as Cosign required. All other approved standing orders are found on PolicyStat.
2	Verbal Order with Read Back: used only in Emergent situations (rarely used in the ambulatory setting).
3	Written/Fax: paper orders that must be scanned into the chart for documentation.
4	Per Protocol/Policy/Existing Order: used for orders with approved protocol or an existing order in the chart signed by a provider.
5	Proposed: order is added when provider is required to sign before execution (most frequently used order type). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. All medication orders should be proposed. b. If the order does not meet criteria for any other order type, it should be proposed. c. When the Proposal Communication type is selected, Select Proposal for the Order type.
6	*The order proposal box on Orders for Signature screen is automatically checked for all proposed orders, or unchecked if the order is not a proposed order.

Clinical EHR Education Website Reference: Order Communication Type Definitions

Order Communication Type

1	Cosign Required: orders are available for order types with a Munson Healthcare approved standing orders only . <ul style="list-style-type: none"> b. All active Health Maintenance Recommendations may be ordered as Cosign required. All other approved standing orders are found on PolicyStat.
2	Verbal Order with Read Back: used only in Emergent situations (rarely used in the ambulatory setting).
3	Written/Fax: paper orders that must be scanned into the chart for documentation.
4	Per Protocol/Policy/Existing Order: used for orders with approved protocol or an existing order in the chart signed by a provider.
5	Proposed: order is added when provider is required to sign before execution (most frequently used order type). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> d. All medication orders should be proposed. e. If the order does not meet criteria for any other order type, it should be proposed. f. When the Proposal Communication type is selected, Select Proposal for the Order type.
6	*The order proposal box on Orders for Signature screen is automatically checked for all proposed orders, or unchecked if the order is not a proposed order.

Clinical EHR Education Website Reference: Order Communication Type Definitions